

10 Things to do with a car

- The Dingle Peninsula has to be one of the most scenic drives for any traveller with the views from the Conor Pass and Sleah Head being some of the most breathtaking in Kerry.
- Killarney National Park offers visitors the McGillicuddy Reeks, Ireland's highest mountain range, Muckross House & Gardens, Torc Waterfall, the Killarney Lakes and many species of wildlife including the famous Irish Red & Sika Deer
- The Ring of Kerry is part of the mystical & unspoilt region of Ireland that has attracted visitors for hundreds of years. Visitors tour Killarney, Kenmare, Sneem, Waterville, Cahersiveen, and Killorglin.
- Learn more about Peg Sayers and about the life of the Islanders in the The Balsket Centre, located in the heart of Dingle on the Sleah Head drive

10 Things To Do In The Sunshine

- Explore the many beaches in Kerry from Banna Beach to the Maherees, Ballybunion to Ballyheigue
- Visit Jamie Knox or Waterworld – Surfing, Banana Boats, Scuba Diving
- Kerry is the place to visit for the avid golf player with its many famous 18 and 9 hole golf courses such as Tralee Golf Course, Ballybunion & Killarney
- Climb Torc Waterfall in Killarney and enjoy the amazing views from the top
- Take one of the many walk ways around Tralee. Walk from the
- Enjoy a leisurely (or high powered!) game of tennis at the Carlton Hotel Astros turf tennis courts.
- There's no better way to enjoy the scenic countryside than on horseback! There are many equestrian centres that will take you on that journey
- Tralee Bay Sailing School offers sailing courses, power boat courses, dinghy hire & kayak classes for children & adults alike. Using fully qualified professional instructors, they will get you on the water in a safe & fun manner. All equipment & training is provided.

10 Things To Do In The Rain

- Go back in time to with the Medieval Experience, where you will soak the sights & sounds of Tralee during 1450
- Visit Crag Cave, a Magical underworld attraction of stalagmites and stalactites
- Siamsa Tire, Ireland's National Folk Theatre, where many Irish language and stage performances are hosted
- Predator Paintball is a stimulating adrenaline packed game, gives an action packed day of teamwork and adventure. This may seem like an activity that you can only do when the sun shines, but trust it's way better fun when it rains!!
- Go Shopping! Visit Manor West Retail Park for array of shops from Debenhams to Next, Smyths Toys to Harvey Normans (definitely something there for all the family!!)
- Why not have a night at the dogs at Kingdom Greyhound Stadium! Enjoy dinner, place a bet or two and soak in the atmosphere
- For those who are a little bit more fearless, why not take a trip to Play at Height in Dingle. Climbing wall & high rope adventure for all the family!
- Go see a matinee in the Omniplex Cinema with 8 screens which means 8 movies to choose from
- Dingle Oceanworld is an experience not to be missed! Walk through the underground water tunnel and come face to face with deadly sharks or hold a star fish.

10 Things to Do With Children

- Toby World Indoor Adventure World...playtime has never been so much fun
- Make a splash in the Aquadome, an indoor waterworld that is brimming with exciting features that capture the imagination of child and adult alike.
- Have fun with the whole family in Bowling Buddies
- Blennerville Windmill, Ireland's only working Windmill, stands out as the dominant landmark in Tralee Bay - where the town of Tralee meets the Dingle Peninsula.
- Cappanlea Outdoor Education Centre, offers a variety of Outdoor Education courses focusing on aspects of personal development by introducing students to outdoor and wilderness experiences.
- Take a boat ride and see Ireland's most famous friendly dolphin....Fungi...watch as he jumps the boats and tries to make friends with you

10 Things to Do Without A Car

- Take a stroll around the town park, and the rose garden, to watching the world go by in the town square, or a leisurely walk along the river, there is something for everyone.
- Blennerville Steam Train is part of the famous Tralee to Dingle Light Railway (1891-1953), visitors can experience the sensation of travelling by steam train from the special railway station at Ballyard.
- Dingle Way, Tralee represents the start and end of one of Ireland's most famous walking routes, the Dingle Way.
- Visit the many historic exhibitions held at Kerry County Museum
- If you are into art why not take a visit to the Siamsa Tire Art Gallery where total of 14 different exhibitions of irish art are on display every year
- Enjoy a traditonal irish music session or something a little more modern in the live music scene that comes alive at night in Tralee
- South West Walks Ireland